MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 22, 1880 New Stories of Judge Black.

Miss Grundy in Philadelphia Times. Judge and Mrs. Black returned to their residence at York, Pa., the first of this week. An incident which I have lately heard in Judge Black's early history interests me much. When a very young man, just old enough to be eligible, his party (the Democratic, of course, for he was dyed in the wool) proposed him as their candidate for Congress and felt sure of electing him, for, although the district was Whig by an overwhelming majority (two or three thousand, I think,) the gentleman who was certain to be nominated by the Whigs happened to be very unpopular. Mr. Black's father was a Whig-a strong Whig in every sense-and so were most of his numerous relatives, and this, as well as some other causes, made that party willing to see him take a step up-ward in political life. But certain leading members of the Whig party, unwilling to lose the district to a Democrat, held a conference and took counsel among them selves how they might save it. It was necessary to kill off both their own unpopular candidate and the dangerous one whom the Democrats had brought into the field. This they did effectually by putting on their ticket the elder Mr. Black, the father of the Democratic candidate, who retired not only with grace but apparently with pleasure, insomuch that he was for awhile out of favor with the Democracy for supposed complicity with the manœu vre. His father was elected without op position.

Here is another incident which dates later in his life, but long before he came to Washington in the public service. The Harrisburg guards changed their name to the "Cameron guards," and Simon Cameron gave them five hundred dollars. Jack Ogle, a brilliant young fellow, afterwards an M. C., a friend and relative of Judge Black, was captain of the Somerse guards, a gay volunteer company at Judge Black's home. Hearing of Cameron's donation the captain called on Judge Black and insisted upon a similar gift to his company, to which the Judge as-sented without hesitation upon the same condition as to change of name. "Certainly," said the captain, "we expect nothing else." "Then it is settled," said the judge, "but Jack think how the new name will sound. May it not be possible that some of your men will dislike to be called 'the Black Guards.'" The captain saw it in an instant and said he would not bear such a name for any money.

Indigestion. The main cause of nervousness is indiges tion, and that is caused by weakness of the stom, and that is caused by weakness of the stomach. No one can have sound nerves and good health without using Hop Bitters to strengthen the stomach, purify the blood, and keep the liver and kidneys active, to carry off all the poisonous and waste matter of the sys-tem. 1,000 of the most difficult chronic (so called) incurable cases during a nine month's practice. The most of them had been the rounds of the leading physicians of Lancaster county. DR. GREENE is ready at any time to meet a committee of the Lancaster County Medical Society at the Opera House or elsewhere to discuss the merits of Omnipathy and prove its superiority over all other pathies in vogue. The people are greatly interested and demand the fullest investigation. Invalids are every week dying in this county whose lives could be saved. Is there any subject about which the masses are more concerned than restoration to health, and the prolonging of their lives? Dr. G. originated and is now the owner of 29 Medical Pads. He especially warns the public against the numerous counterfeits now offered the people.

NERVINE, OR TONIC SPECIFICA. A BOON TO BOTH SEXES.

A REMEDY WITHOUT A RIVAL for all diseases arising from Nervous Debility, Sexual Disorders, over Indulgence of Vicious Habits, as well as from the prostration of old age. Its curative properties in violent and chronic forms of the following diseases have been attested to by the most Eminent Physicians:

Dyspepsia, Self Abuse, Headache, Dizziness, Sexual Exhaustion, Spermatorrhosa, General Debility, Impotency, Premature Decay, &c.

It has been in use for over forty years, and is to-day the most popular remedy for the diseases above mentioned in the WORLD. It can be used without regard to diet, is pleasant in taste, and better than all, it is a sure, safe and certain cure. It is no quack medicine, but stands upon its own merits, as any trial wil amply demonstrate. Since 1836 this remedy has always been sold for a much larger price than that for which it is now sold; but owing to the act that the time for the payment of an enormous royalty upon its manufacture has expired, it is offered to the suffering of both sexes at one dollar per package, so as to be within the reach of all; at which price it will be sent to any address tree of further charge.

DR. BROWNING is a regular graduate of medicine, a skillful pharmacist, and a thorough chemist. His "C. & C." (Cough and Cold) Cordial is not the result of mere chance, but of long scientific research in chemistry and medicine, as is plainly seen by the rapidity of its action and its unparalleled efficacy. The expense in its manufacture is at least five times as great as that of any other medicine upon the market, and yet it is sold at the exceedingly low price of 50c. 43-Sample bottles (for a short time only) 25c.

MEDICAL,

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afficted with

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

A Sovereign Remedy

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY,

Reigart's Old Brandy,

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale breau, and as a beverage be used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

In his case, he looked up with astoniahment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which helchose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practicians Payatoran.

Brandy as a Medicine.

Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.

With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miscrable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preterence over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—
